STAT   Professor Lloyd Rudolph, Murphy Commission Staff

[ ] Intelligence Community Staff

DATE   : 27 September 1974

STAT   1. [ ] gave Professor Rudolph a brief run-down on OCI and OPR and how they fit into the production of finished intelligence. He also laid down specific ground rules reagrding the topics Professor Rudolph wanted to discuss, stressing that operational matters and sources and methods were off limits. The Professor agreed and did not press for any information that got into these areas.

2. The substantive discussion closely followed the list of questions the Professor had submitted in advance (copy attached). Mr. Rudolph was able to rephrase most of the questions so that they could be answered within the security ground rules. It became apparent that although he frequently had used the phrase "CIA position" on various issues, he actually meant "CIA analysis." Consequently [ ] were able to satisfy his

STAT   requirements. Regarding the question on sources within the STAT   [ ] remarked only that he believed we had good coverage on that topic, and he then discussed the types of finished reporting that had been done on insurgent groups in Sri Lanka. He also made clear to Professor Rudolph that many things are covered on a current reporting basis but that estimates, per se, are done much less frequently.

3. The discussion lasted approximately one and one-half hours. The Professor took notes. He had already talked with many other people in the State and Defense Department and appeared to be satisfied with the cooperation he had received from all parties.
